La República que no pudo ser: La política de centro en España (1931-1936) (Spanish Edition) Nigel Townson

Este libro enfoca desde una nueva perspectiva uno de los capítulos más importantes de nuestra historia y cubre un vacío fundamental en la historiografía de este periodo.

Frente a la tan manida idea de las dos Españas, Nigel Townson nos ofrece un deslumbrante análisis de las causas que originaron la Guerra Civil española, destacando la actuación del Partido Republicano Radical, representante de la política centrista.

Apoyándose en el Archivo de la Guerra Civil y documentos inéditos hasta ahora de Alejandro Lerroux, entre otros, esta obra arroja nueva luz sobre los acontecimientos previos al conflicto, en especial a la «Sanjurjada» de 1932, las crisis políticas del año siguiente, el rol de la masonería, el escándalo del estraperlo y la alianza del centro y la derecha que dominó España entre 1933 y 1935.
