La gula: Pasión por la voracidad (Pecados capitales) (Spanish Edition) Francesca Rigotti

El pecado de gula, como es sabido desde la Edad Media, es un pecado «carnal», en contraposición a los pecados «espirituales», como la envidia y la soberbia. Es carnal porque hunde sus raíces en la corporeidad del hombre y en el placer que siente comiendo y bebiendo y en las sensaciones que acompañan a estas acciones; es carnal porque requiere del necesario soporte de uno o más órganos del cuerpo humano (el vientre, el estómago, la garganta); es carnal, en fin, porque se transfiere directa y visiblemente a la carne, a la grasa de la persona...

El carácter de la gula, como por lo demás el de otros pecados, ha sufrido a lo largo del tiempo sensibles metamorfosis, de pecado a enfermedad, de vicio voluntario a disposición hereditaria, de pecado de los ricos a pecado de los pobres, de depravación individual a tendencia social, tantas y tales son las transformaciones sufridas por la gula desde la invención del pecado hasta nuestros días.
