Unknowns... we all have them. But what can we do about these ineludible mysteries we face?

Who am I--what is my purpose?

Why is there so much evil in the world?

Who is Jesus, really?

What is the Church, and why is it important?

What is prayer, and why do I need it?

Grappling with these questions and many more, Stuebe walks with the reader on a journey of thought. Using memoir, storytelling, philosophy, modern culture, and Biblical studies as his media, he approaches questions of life and faith head-on, with an invigorating blend of earnestness and humor.

In a powerfully encouraging way, Into the Unknown teaches that the unknowns of life need not restrain us from finding our true purpose and living it out. Sometimes all that's required is a simple leap of faith.
