Eli was a suave and stylish billionaire who had it all ... until he lost everything. Now Eli sits in a prison cell accused of murdering his ex-wife. It's a horrible crime, but he didn't do it.

With nothing left to lose, Eli turns to Avery, his sweet and sassy little lady. Only Avery can help Eli pull off the most daring escape of his life.

Avery will stop at nothing to save the man who raised her. She loves Eli—always has, always will. But Avery is a woman now, with a woman's needs. What she wants, she isn't supposed to have.

Avery can tell Eli feels the same way about her. She sees it in his eyes. Together, they run from the law while clinging to each other, their forbidden desire growing by the day. If their love is true, it will survive the ultimate manhunt ... and the ultimate taboo.

Eli is determined to prove his innocence and reclaim his riches. Avery just wants her very own "happily ever after." But Avery has no idea how far Eli is willing to go.
