All the Time You Need Mary Ellen Edmunds

Learn how to give yourself enough room so you can have enough room for others. 'We want to do everything so quickly,' says bestselling author Mary Ellen Edmunds. 'We hunt for fast-food, shortcuts, one-hour photo developing, express elevators, condensed books, instant soups, and ten-minute oil changes. I have a 72-minute kit.' In this delightful booklet Mary Ellen combines her trademark humor with concrete suggestions to help women prioritize, plan, and pursue what really matters most. 'Perhaps we can consider this advice, which has been given by many,' she says, 'to tithe our time. Miraculously nine minutes go further than ten, just as nine pennies go further than ten...somehow, when we do what God asks us to do, the best we can, keeping first things first, our time seems to come back to us, added upon and multiplied. It's a miracle.'
