Después de muchos años de transmitir las ideas y los conceptos y de dar herramientas para un buen manejo de los datos, la información y las bases de datos y en especial del uso de Excel, me he encontrado cientos de veces con estudiantes que cuando logran interpretar estos conocimientos su calidad de vida y en especial en su trabajo, ha mejorado sustancialmente. La experiencia de muchos años en el manejo de Información me permite asegurar que plantear los diferentes problemas y situaciones en una estructura organizada como una base de datos, facilita la solución de estos y en especial amplía las posibilidades de almacenar datos históricos que permiten desarrollar consultas que dan un gran potencial para la toma de decisiones. Si le agregamos el gran poder de una hoja de cálculo como Excel, generamos un gran poder a la información que nos permite crear, actualizar, recopilar, explotar y presentar esa información de una manera clara y dinámica.
