“Why did we spend so much time hating each other?”

Aria March has spent the past decade trying to forget the way Nash Geary made her feel. The way his mouth moved over her skin, the way he kissed her like he she was going to be his, forever...

The way he broke her heart.

But now she has a daughter, and an ex who'll stop at nothing to rip custody away with every dirty trick in the book. Aria doesn't think she can win against him this time. Unless she can find a fake husband. A fake father for her kid. A fake perfect life to protect her family.

What are the odds Nash would be looking for a fake wife?

“What kind of crazy?”

“The kind of crazy where we give this a real chance.”

Now Aria and Nash are stuck pretending that they love each other. They have to fool their families, their friends, and the rest of the small town who can't stop talking about their newfound love.

And if they're not careful, they might just end up fooling themselves...
