Paradox: Embracing the Tensions of Christianity Matt LeRoy, Jeremy Summers

There always have been tensions in our faith—on the surface, many defining truths of Christianity seem opposed to each other. But, as with the strings of a guitar, what if the tension is exactly what creates the music? What if Christianity’s essential truths are not in debate, but in dialogue? Maybe the tension doesn’t pull truths apart, but holds them together.

This is the heart of LeRoy and Summers: a deeper faith that embraces the essential tensions in truth. Paradox wrestles through difficult questions with courageous honesty, sensitivity, and creative insight, fostering a safe and authentic environment for readers to express and explore their doubts. It issues a bold challenge for Christians to embrace what in truth can seem to be polar opposites and go deeper into a very real faith.

Matt LeRoy is a pastor of Love Chapel Hill, an eclectic church plant in downtown Chapel Hill, North Carolina. He is coauthor with Jeremy Summers of Awakening Grace (Wesleyan Publishing House).

Jeremy Summers is an ordained pastor, serves The Wesleyan Church as a denominational leader, and is passionate about spiritual formation in the church.
