HIGH LAWLESS: Hot mile after weary mile, the pure joy of revenge ate away at Ed Channing's guts. But the trail of the drygulcher who'd killed his partner landed Channing smack in the middle of a seething range war. No stranger to violence, he was ready to outgun any man who crossed his sights. It would take a blazing shootout to settle all the scores—and one good man to bring justice to a lawless land.

SAVAGE SIERRA: Chingo, Charbonneau, Bonito, and Kincaid were four desperate men with one thought stuck in their renegade minds: kill Angsman. Gun him down, string him up—they didn't care. Even without those bushwackers hunting him, Angsman was going to have trouble staying alive. The three damn fools he was leading across the blistering desert would see to that—if the Apaches didn't ambush them first. But Angsman knew a man stayed dead for a long, long time, and he wasn't ready to go to hell just yet.
