The Testament of Judas M. Tyler Gillett

An ancient manuscript recovered from the sands of Egypt reveals a shocking portrait of Jesus, as told by his infamous disciple, Judas Iscariot. Here Judas is not the betrayer of Christian tradition, but instead a man willing to make the ultimate sacrifice to try to save the world from an unthinkable evil. The Testament of Judas brings everything about the ministry of Jesus into doubt, forcing the reader to confront the question: what if the promise of eternal life is not a blessing, but a curse?
