This is the third guide to becoming great golfer in the Better Golf Institute series.

In It, the skill of driving the ball from the tee is covered in detail. More detail than usual because of the distance the ball covers from the tee is greater than all the other clubs put together. It is therefore vital to get right.

We have all seen the professionals hit the ball for miles and wish we could do the same. Actually the pro's also hit the ball into the out of bounds or onto a neighboring fairway or into the trees so they are not totally at home with the driver either.

Driving the golf ball is not as easy as it looks and this is why so much time and energy is expended on getting it right. The better Golf Institute series recognizes that and it is reflected in the content.

Table of contents is:

Assuming the Right Stance for Power Drives, Part 1

Assuming the Right Stance for Power Drives, Part 2
