Manuscrito ms 408 (Spanish Edition) Thierry Maugenest

A lo largo de los siglos, sabios y soberanos han codiciado un valioso manuscrito, un códice medieval, mucho tiempo olvidado, capaz de hacer temblar los cimientos de la razón. ¿El precio de la sabiduría puede ser la muerte?

Sur de Inglaterra, fines del siglo XIII Roger Bacon ha sido condenado a quince años de prisión por sus escritos considerados heréticos: fruto de años de estudio, le permitieron desvelar los misterios más profundos del conocimiento humano. Decidido a preservar sus descubrimientos de la barbarie de la época, el monje los recoge en un manuscrito codificado. Cuando su muerte se acerca, el filósofo lega el valioso códice junto con su clave a su discípulo más aventajado. El escrito debe mantenerse oculto, generación tras generación, hasta que la humanidad esté preparada para conocer lo que contiene.

Nueva York, siglo XX. El agente especial del FBI Marcus Calleron investiga un caso insólito: un bibliófilo se ha visto afectado por un extraño coma cerebral tras recibir la visita de un desconocido. En los últimos años se han registrado tres casos similares; todos parecen guardar relación con el estudio de un misterioso manuscrito medieval. Una apasionante intriga histórica inspirada en uno de los textos más crípticos del mundo, un manuscrito que ha sido objeto de estudio de teólogos y científicos de todos los tiempos... y de la codicia de las mentes más criminales.
