Mitos y leyendas celtas (Noema) (Spanish Edition) T. W. Rolleston

Fieros en la batalla y amantes de las historias; así eran los celtas, y así se reflejan en las leyendas que nos han legado. Transmitidas oralmente de padres a hijos durante siglos, aunque puestas por escrito mucho después, nos traen ecos de un pasado donde el valor, el honor, la belleza y la magia formaban parte de lo cotidiano. Desde los conocidísimos caballeros de la corte del rey Arturo hasta los héroes más oscuros, estos personajes milenarios siguen siendo una fuente de inspiración constante para escritores y cineastas, y han entrado a formar parte del imaginario popular como algo a la vez exótico y cercano.

Este título es considerado desde su publicación la recopilación más completa sobre la cosmovisión de los pueblos celtas de la antigüedad. Escrito con gran rigor literario y belleza narrativa, es una referencia imprescindible tanto para el estudio en profundidad de esta cultura como para iniciarse en sus misterios
