The last thing Emily Proctor wants to do is attend her ex-boyfriend, Brad's wedding. The only thing that could be more humiliating than going to the wedding is going alone. No way is Emily going to let that happen...

Chance McCall has been in love with Emily for as long as he can remember. She was his first love, the only girl he could never get out of his head. So when she asks him to attend her loser ex's wedding and pose as her fiancé, he's more than willing to play the part. The beautiful resort at Barefoot Bay is the perfect place to charm and romance her. But when he realizes that Emily isn't over Brad—and that Brad might not be over Emily—Chance has no choice but to step up his game or miss out on a second chance at his first love...
