All Casper wanted to do was take a trip to a castle he heard about. He knew people didn't think dragons were friendly but he was going to show them that some were. He tells his guitar playing best friend that he will return soon and embarks on his adventure.

He didn't receive the warm greeting he hoped for at the castle and was chased away. His new adventure starts when he drives a car and finds a group of dinosaurs. He gets homesick and decides to return home.

He does it during a severe storm and sees Santa and his reindeer in trouble. Can Casper save Christmas?

This is a picture book written by an author who spent twenty-five years as a day care teacher before being forced to go on disability. She uses her knowledge of what kids in the two to seven year old age group enjoy. Read this book with your kids and enjoy the colorful pictures.
